Senior Bridge Engineer

Brookbanks is seeking an experienced Bridge Engineer to take part in the growth of our successful Structural Engineering team, working on major development initiatives throughout the UK. The successful candidate is likely to be a chartered professional with extensive experience in senior roles, possessing skills in delivering outstanding technical solutions for UK-based bridge projects.

ROLE & CANDIDATE PROFILE

- Highly experienced in the delivery of UK-based bridge projects
- Competent in deriving bridge loadings to code requirements and using industry standard software for the analysis and detailed design of bridges and associated highway structures
- Competent in developing details and producing specifications, calculations and risk assessments to meet Eurocode and DMRB requirements
- Thorough knowledge of industry best practice and checking procedures with an ability to deliver innovative and cost-effective solutions
- Experienced in managing and carrying out category design checks in line with DMRB requirements
- Experienced in overseeing engineers and technicians to produce drawings and specification packages
- Ideally Chartered MStructE or ICE, with upwards of 5 to 10 years' experience of highway and rail bridge projects, working in a design consultancy environment
- An enthusiastic problem solver who can work under their own steam and as part of a team to meet client requirements and project timelines, and manage internal cost controls
- Ideally experienced in undertaking inspections of existing bridge and highway structures and the associated formal reporting processes

PACKAGE

The financial package will be commensurate with experience.

LOCATION

This role is based in Ringwood, the successful candidate would ideally be within 1 hour's commuting distance.
